FLAT RIVER PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH DEDICATED.

On last Sunday morning the new Presbyterian church at Flat River was dedicated with appropriate exercises. The other churches of that community dismissed and united with the Presbyterians in the dedicatory exercises and also some sixty or more Presbyterians from Farmington attended.

Among the music numbers were anthems rendered by the choir of the local church and also by the choir of the Farmington church.

The dedication sermon was preached by Rev. C. E. Hickok, of Farmington. Disclaiming that any sect or denomination had the exclusive right to the title of the church of the Living God or of Christ, he endeavored to show the marks of the true church, basing his sermon upon the first chapter of Paul's Epistle to the Colossians. His sermon was an able and thoughtful presentation of the subject.

Rev. R. P. Fullerton, D. D., of St. Louis made an excellent address in which he expressed pleasure at the cordial spirit existing between the churches. He called for the report of the building committee which was given by Mr. Stewart. This showed that the building, exclusive of the lot, has cost about $6,000, and that there was a deficit of $2,400 in the treasury. Dr. Fullerton then proceeded to receive offerings to cover this debt, and the responses were generous. It was reduced to less than $1,000.

Dr. Fullerton had charge of the actual dedicatory ceremony, calling upon Dr. Stophlet to offer the dedicatory prayer. The exercises closed with the benediction.

The church is a handsome brick structure, well arranged not only for the regular church services but also for Sunday school purposes, having a number of separate classrooms that can be thrown into the main auditorium. It seats about six hundred, and Sunday morning it was taxed to its full capacity. There is also provided a basement to be used for social purposes. The ladies of the church served a luncheon to the visitors who had come from a distance.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NOTES.

Miss Helen Murrill substituted for Miss Louise Huff last Tuesday morning.

The visitors at school last week were Rev. J. M. Bailey, Mrs. W. N. Fleming and Mrs. H. S. Meyers. May we not have more visitors?

Eleven of the public school teachers have signified their intention of attending the Southeast Missouri Teachers' Association at Cape Girardeau this week. Several of the teachers of this neighborhood, including some from our public school, are on the program. It is estimated that approximately one hundred teachers from the county will be in attendance.

The eighth grade room has the best attendance for last week. The seventh grade, room 2, South Ward, and room 4 of the North Ward, are close followers. The ranking stands 92.4 per cent, 98.9 per cent, 98.2 per cent, 97.8 per cent, respectively. General attendance for the school (colored not included) 96.4 per cent. Colored school 85.3 per cent.

It is a misdemeanor for a boy under 18 years of age to smoke cigarettes. It is a misdemeanor for any person to put these in his hands in any way. Each of these offenses is punishable by a fine. Good citizenship requires that these laws be enforced. The use of cigarettes especially, and tobacco in general, are hindrances to school work. Teachers are required to prohibit the use of these in the school or on the school grounds, and are fairly well succeeding in this respect, but we must have the combined assistance of the home and public sentiment to be very effective. It will be appreciated if the business men will keep closer watch in regard to those who are securing the cigarettes. They can aid materially also by insisting upon new employees abstaining from the use of cigarettes, if they are desirous of doing so. The Superintendent will be glad to contribute in any way in assisting in either of the above suggested efforts. Prospective employers may have the school record of any prospective employee upon request.

THE BULL MOOSE MEETING.

Judge G. O. Nations, candidate for Prosecuting Attorney on the Bull Moose county ticket, addressed a large open-air crowd at Elvins last Friday night. During the speaking a cry of "Fire! Fire!" rang out on the ambient air, and two men were seen standing on the roof of a building frantically waving their arms. The crowd began to waver and start in the direction of the supposed fire, but it was soon discovered to be a fake alarm and they quieted down while the Judge went on with his speech.

When the crowd began to move at the first alarm, the two men quickly disappeared from the roof and were seen running toward the office of Polite Elvins, Chairman of the State Republican Committee, and to enter it. City Marshal Wm. Black followed them and found the door locked. They refused his demand to open the door, so he got a step ladder, mounted to the transom, and displaying the authority of his office in the shape of an ugly-looking gun, demanded their capitulation. They capitulated and were locked up on a charge of attempting to break up a public meeting for an hour or two to cool their partisan ardor when they were released on bonds of $500 each. The two too perniciously active standpatters proved to be Postmaster George

FIENDISH CRIME BY

IRON COUNTY TOUGHS.

One of the most fiendish, inhuman and brutal assaults in the annals of crime was made by a gang of Iron county toughs last Saturday. A young man and his wife, Thomas J. Mullane and Mrs. Lillie Collinson Mullane of Richmond, Va., were roughing it through the country for the benefit of his health. They had passed through Annapolis on their way from St. Louis to Poplar Bluff, and were followed by a gang of toughs, who seized them and pinioning the young husband and holding a revolver to his head, dragged his young wife to the woods, within his vision, and brutally outraged her; then dragged her to a barn, while she pitifully cried to her husband, who was helplessly in the power of two or three of the gang, for help. He finally succeeded in breaking loose, and escaping a shower of bullets; ran to Annapolis, a distance of six miles, and to the office of Justice A. H. Johnson, where he gasped out his heart rending story. The Justice immediately deputized several men who armed themselves and, accompanied by the distracted husband, hastened to the scene of the crime. They surrounded the barn and hearing the poor woman's moans and the oaths of the men, they broke open the door and rushed upon them. Mrs. Mullane was unconscious and nearly dead and her clothing was stripped from her body. There were thirteen of the gang. A number of them escaped, but on Monday six had been captured and it is hoped that all may yet be taken. Mrs. Mullane is in a most serious and deplorable condition, and she and her husband, who is prostrated by his unhappy experience, are being cared for by the good people of Annapolis. The crime is a capital one, and there is no punishment too severe for such fiendishness.
